

The School of Visual Communication at Ohio University

Knight Fellowship in Newsroom Graphics Management

An extraordinary opportunity for an outstanding mid-career professional to earn a Master's degree from the School of Visual Communication at Ohio University.

Each year, a single fellowship recipient will be awarded admission to one of the country's best visual communication programs, with full tuition support and a generous stipend provided by the John S. and James L. Knight Foundation.

The successful applicant must have a bachelor's degree and substantial professional experience. Admission is based on your academic and professional background. Each applicant must submit a completed application form, two official transcripts from each post-secondary institution attended to the Office of Graduate Student Services, Ohio University, Athens, OH 45701-2979.

Program information can be found at: www.viscom.ohiou.edu/graduate/knight.html

Deadline for receipt of application is February 1, 2007. Candidates are encouraged to discuss their application with the program director well before the application deadline.
