Scholarships awarded by VisCom Scholarship Committee

[advanced photojournalism students]

☐ The Paul Schutzer Memorial Award

Paul Schutzer is a former LIFE magazine photographer who was killed while on assignment while covering the Israeli-Arab warfare in the Sinai Desert.

This award was established in his name, to provide an annual grant which would help fund an outstanding student of photojournalism to cover a story or project in depth and produce a photo essay. The applicant must be a full-time advanced level photojournalism student majoring in the School of Visual Communication at Ohio University.

[undergraduate photojournalism or commercial photography students]

☐ The Kodak Professional Photography Scholarship

The purpose of this fund is to award student excellence in photography. The fund will provide an annual scholarship to a full-time undergraduate student attending the Athens campus of Ohio University and majoring in Visual Communication. To be eligible, students must have completed at least one full year of college work and have at least one full year of work left before graduation. Selection shall be based upon the following considerations: grade-point average, photo course work, portfolio review, creative and technical ability, initiative, extracurricular activity experiences, communications ability and leadership ability.

Payments of this award to the recipient will be made in three installments to cover the academic year. The award shall be used for tuition only.

[all majors]

☐ Charles L. Scott Scholarship

This scholarship is to be awarded to students who are enrolled in the School of Visual Communication at Ohio University. Students selected to receive this scholarship should have demonstrated excellence within the field of Visual Communication, as well as within the school and university.

The number of annual awards and the amount of each shall be determined by the amount available for expenditure.

Payment of this award will be made in three installments to cover the academic year. The scholarship shall be used toward tuition, room and board, textbooks or other educationally-related expenses.

[multicultural student]

☐ Vern N. Utley Scholarship

This scholarship is to be awarded to a multicultural student who is enrolled in the School of Visual Communication.

Payment of this award to the recipient will be made in three installments to cover the academic year. The scholarship shall be used toward tuition, room and board, textbooks and other educationally-related expenses.

[VisCom or Journalism student from Fairfield County]

☐ Madeline L. Utley Scholarship

The scholarship is to be awarded to a student from Fairfield County, Ohio who is enrolled in either the School of Visual Communication or the E.W. Scripps School of Journalism. The scholarship committee of the College of Communication will work with the scholarship committees of the schools to determine who has financial need.

Payment of this award to the recipient will be made in three installments to cover the academic year. The scholarship shall be used toward tuition, room and board, textbooks and other educationally-related expenses.

[all majors]

☐ Founder's Vision Award

These funds will be distributed to a student who proposes a project that best demonstrates the vision of the founders when they created a program to teach about the importance of communicating with visuals. Funds will be distributed in the form of an award to support expenses related to completion of this project.

Applicants will be required to submit a project proposal, time line, and budget to the selection committee. The selected student will complete the project while enrolled for VICO 491/691 to ensure faculty guidance of the project. All students in the School of Visual Communication are eligible.

[all majors]

☐ Marvin E. Parsons Scholarship

Marvin Parsons is fondly remembered by VisCom. He worked as the IT manager for several years. This scholarship will be awarded to the student who best embodies his personality.

The student receiving this scholarship should be making progress in his/her degree. He/she will need to exhibit good citizenship, and demonstrate that he/she is a caring individual, with a positive attitude toward school work and his/her fellow classmates.

[all majors]

☐ College of Communication General Scholarship

This scholarship is to be awarded to students who are enrolled in the School of Visual Communication. Students selected to receive this scholarship should have demonstrated excellence within the field of Visual Communication, as well as within the school and university.

The number of annual awards and the amount of each shall be determined by the amount available for expenditure.
